Welcome to the archipelago

Indonesia is part of South East Asia. Indonesia is not one land mass, but an archipelago (a group of islands). It comprises the world's most expansive group of islands, with over 13,000 islands in total. Indonesia's closest neighbours are Singapore, Malaysia, Papua New Guinea and Australia.

Name one of Indonesia's closest neighbours?