Names in Indonesia

The different regions of Indonesia have different ways of naming their children. For example, Balinese children are given a name which signifies first Wayan, second Made, third Nyoman or fourth Ketut. If there are more than four children in a family, the names begin again with 'Wayan'.

If you were the second born, what would your name be? __________