Instructions

- Students need a partner to do this activity.
- Student A interviews student B using the first set of questions and records their responses in the spaces provided. If no is given as an answer, go on to the next question.
- Roles are then reversed and student B asks the next set of questions and records their responses in the spaces provided.

Name: ________________