

2022 Education State Forum

Program overview

Day Two – Schools

Wellbeing, workforce and pathways: New perspectives on education

Time	Session	Speaker
9:00am	Opening plenary <ul style="list-style-type: none">Opening introductionsReflect on our progress and achievements in delivering the Education StateDiscuss the implementation of key policies and reforms to give every Victorian child the chance to succeed	Natalie Hutchins – Minister for Education and Minister for Women Jenny Atta – Secretary, Department of Education and Training
9:35am	Keynote <ul style="list-style-type: none">Hear the benefits of building effective relationships between schools and teacher training institutionsUnderstand opportunities to collaborate to improve the quality of teaching across VictoriaExplore how to develop and support the next generation of teachers	Professor Jim Watterston – Dean, Graduate School of Education University of Melbourne
10:20am	Morning tea
10:40am	Workforce <ul style="list-style-type: none">Understand avenues for addressing workforce needs, and how to increase the value of teaching as a vocationHear successful and unsuccessful workforce attraction and retention strategiesUnderstand actions to address workforce supply challenges at the school and system level	Stephanie Speck – Executive Director and Chief Communications Officer, Department of Education and Training Anne-Maree Kliman – Principal, Tarneit P-9 College Peter Langham – Principal, Monterey Secondary College Tom Cain – Assistant Principal, Monterey Secondary College Tony Bugden – Executive Director, School Human Resources Division, Department of Education and Training
12:10pm	Lunch

2022 Education State Forum

Program overview

Day Two – Schools (continued)

Wellbeing, workforce and pathways: New perspectives on education

Time	Session	Speaker
1:10pm	FISO 2.0 – learning and wellbeing <ul style="list-style-type: none">Hear how FISO 2.0 and the Mental Health Reforms are elevating the importance of student wellbeing	Justin McDonnell – Executive Director, Mental Health Reform, Department of Education and Training Deborah Harman – Principal, Tegan Knuckey – Assistant Principal and Hamish Anderson – Assistant Principal, Balwyn High School Helen Cahill – Emeritus Professor, Melbourne Graduate School of Education, University of Melbourne Jodi Binion – Assistant Principal Student Wellbeing, Griffin Errey – Mental Health and Wellbeing Coordinator, Woodville Primary School
2:40pm	Break
2:50pm	Senior Secondary Pathways Reform <ul style="list-style-type: none">Understand how to build a culture that values vocational and applied learning pathways as much as academic onesHear student and school perspectives on VCALHear research on defining VCAL success and perceptions of senior secondary education in Victoria	Scott Widmer – Assistant Deputy Secretary, Senior Secondary Pathways Reform Taskforce, Department of Education and Training Hannah Valenti – Vocational education and training Champion Kevin Murphy – Principal, Wantirna College
4:20pm	Closing plenary <ul style="list-style-type: none">Summary of key insights from the day	Victorian Student Representative Council (VicSRC) representatives and Rural Youth Ambassador
4:30pm	Networking event <ul style="list-style-type: none">Drinks and canapes to be served
6:30pm	Close	