

MARRUNG

ABORIGINAL EDUCATION PLAN 2016 - 2026

Marrung is the Wemba Wemba word for the Murray Cypress pine tree, representing branches of education and knowledge. We thank the Wemba Wemba people for allowing the use of their language in the naming of this Plan.

OUR VISION

Victoria will be a State where the rich and thriving culture, knowledge and experience of our First Nations peoples are celebrated by all Victorians; where our universal service systems are inclusive, responsive and respectful of Koorie people at every stage of their learning and development journey; and where every Koorie person achieves their potential, succeeds in life, and feels strong in their cultural identity.

Marrung is a long-term plan designed to achieve an aspirational vision to deliver the ambitious Education State targets and will underpin Victoria's strong and steadfast commitment to close the gap in educational outcomes between Koorie and non-Koorie Victorians.

President
Geraldine Atkinson

The Victorian Government, through the Department of Education and Training, has worked with the Victorian Koorie community to develop Marrung. The Government has listened and has heard. Marrung sets a 10 year vision and identifies the significant actions for its achievement. From this plan there will be some ground-breaking change.

OUTCOMES

- Koorie children and learners of all ages are strong in their identity within all services
- All Victorians understand and respect Koorie culture and history
- Services and Koorie communities work together on local, place-based approaches to improving learning outcomes
- Success for Koorie Victorians is core business for all educational leaders
- Young Koorie children are on track in their health, development and wellbeing
- The early learning experience for Koorie children sets them up for life
- Koorie students engage fully throughout their schooling years, and gain the knowledge and skills to excel at Year 12 or its equivalent
- Koorie learners transition successfully into further education and employment
- Koorie people have opportunities to access education at all stages of life
