Community Language Schools
Guidelines for Parent/Guardian complaints

As is the case for children attending mainstream schools, parents/guardians of children attending accredited community language schools are encouraged to contact the child’s teacher to discuss general issues in relation to their child’s languages program including:

- individual student needs
- academic progress
- behaviour and discipline issues
- non-attendance or truancy
- challenging or changing family circumstances.

General issues best raised with the school principal could include:

- school facilities
- excursions
- school fees and charges
- student assessment and reporting
- timing of special events
- homework policy
- student dress codes.

The child’s community language school should always be the first point of contact. Issues are best resolved at the school. Community Languages Victoria (CLV) which is the umbrella organisation for accredited community language schools, expects most issues to be resolved at the school level.

The following guidelines will support parents/guardians who wish to make a formal complaint in relation to their child’s attendance at an accredited community language school.

In making a complaint or seeking to resolve an issue, parents/guardians must follow the next three steps.

Raising an issue with the teacher

Teaching and learning works best when parents/guardians and teachers talk to each other and work together to resolve problems. To address a particular issue, parents/guardians should:

- make an appointment with the class teacher to discuss the issue.
- plan what to say so you can clearly explain the issue.
- listen to the teacher’s response.
- make a note of the people you spoke to and the date you spoke with them.
- outline the steps already taken to resolve the issue.
- explain what action you would like to be taken to resolve the issue. Be reasonable and realistic about your expectations.
- If the issue involves another student at the school, do not approach them or their parents/guardians directly.
- understand the school could refer you to a more appropriate person, or agency.

STEP 2
Raising an issue with the principal/assistant principal

If you still have a concern after talking to the child’s teacher you may choose to meet with the assistant principal or principal of the school.

Updated March 2021
• Make an appointment with the assistant principal or principal and follow the same procedures as you did with the teacher.

Should the issue remain unresolved following consultation with the assistant principal/principal, the parents/guardians concerned should refer the matter to CLV who will assist you and the school to resolve the issue. The procedure for referring complaints to CLV is outlined below.

STEP 3
Raising a complaint in writing with Community Languages Victoria (CLV)

If the issue cannot be resolved by the parents/guardians and the community language school teacher and/or assistant principal/principal, the parents/guardians may make a formal complaint to the Executive Director, CLV, by submitting the attached Complaint Form.

When attempting to resolve complaints, the relevant school and CLV can engage the services of the Dispute Settlement Centre Victoria, which provides a mediation service free of charge. Parents/guardians may also seek to have the services of the Dispute Settlement Centre Victoria engaged if dissatisfied with the manner in which the complaint was handled by CLV. Further information is available at: http://www.disputes.vic.gov.au/

Any complaints about possible criminal behaviour and activity relating to a community languages school or the staff should be referred directly to the Victoria Police.

CLV will take reasonable steps to destroy or permanently de-identify personal information if it is no longer needed for any purpose. Under the Public Record Act 1973, CLV is required to keep full and accurate records and implement a record disposal program. Destruction of personal information must be carried out using CLV’s disposal schedules.
