

LFA 1 Evaluation Survey

FOR LEADERS

Reflect on your experiences in Learning Focus Area 1 and consider to what extent the learning built your capacity to understand the current student reporting context.

Please plot yourself somewhere along the line:

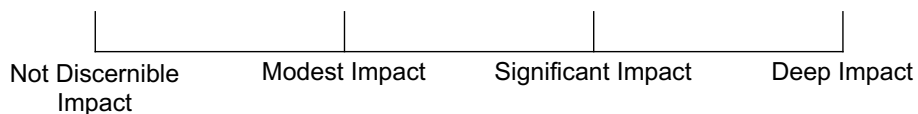

Please elaborate and explain:

Reflect on your experiences in Learning Focus Area 1 and consider to what extent the learning built your capacity to identify school-wide priorities and possibilities for the future.

Please plot yourself somewhere along the line:

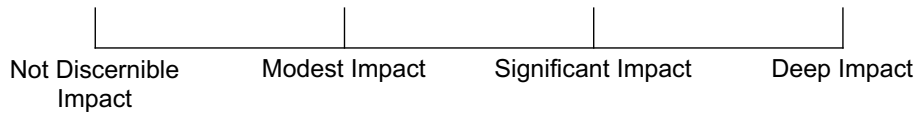

Please elaborate and explain:

FOR TEACHERS

Reflect on your experiences in Learning Focus Area 1 and consider to what extent the learning built your capacity to understand the current student reporting context.

Please plot yourself somewhere along the line:

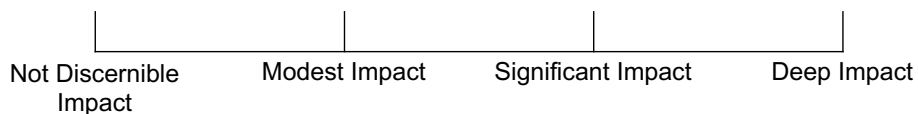

Please elaborate and explain:

Reflect on your experiences in Learning Focus Area 1 and consider to what extent the learning built your capacity to identify teaching and learning priorities and possibilities for the future.

Please plot yourself somewhere along the line:

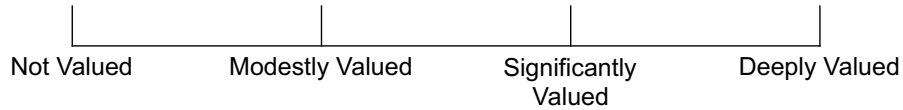

Please elaborate and explain:

FOR PARENTS

Recently you were invited to engage in small group conversations about your current experiences of reporting at the school. Reflect on this experience and consider to what extent you felt that your contributions were valued within this process.

Please plot yourself somewhere along the line:

Please elaborate and explain:

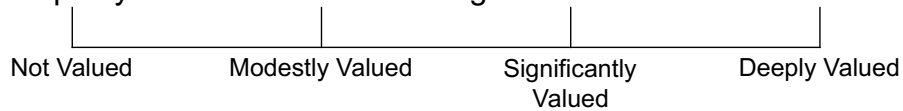

FOR STUDENTS

Recently you were invited to engage in small group conversations about your current experiences of reporting at the school. Reflect on this experience and consider to what extent you felt that your contributions were valued within this process.

this could be completed in small groups or individually with the teacher, or independently by the student*

Please plot yourself somewhere along the line:

Please elaborate and explain:

A large dashed rectangular box for writing. In the top left corner of the box is a small icon of a pencil.