

8. Les grands couturiers français

► Instructions

Choose a well-known French fashion designer and find information about him/her. You can look through magazines or on the Internet. Here are some starting points for your research:

- Choose four pictures of outfits from his/her collection.
- Create a presentation displaying these outfits and other information about the designer. This can be in the form of:
  - an electronic slideshow
  - an article for an imaginary fashion magazine
  - a class talk
  - a poster
- The presentation should provide the following information:
  - What is the designer's name?
  - Describe the overall style he/she likes to create.
  - Is this designer known in Australia? How can you tell?
  - For each outfit, write a description in French of the clothes.
